Ackee trees at historic Morne Nesbit, St. John's, Grenada. On June 10, 1796, Captain Jossey of the French military and British General Nicolls drew up the articles of capitulation at Morne Nesbit when French forces surrendered to the British ending the Fédon's Rebellion. The British refused to pardon Julian Fédon so he continued the war in Belvidere mountains. (Get Herman Hall book: Belvidere Estate – Fédon's House WWW.EVERYBODYSMAG.COM OR AMAZON.COM).
